A. M. Gibson Before the Grand Jury Shortly after the grand jury met this morning they resumed the consideration of the Star-route cases. A. M. Gibson put in his appearance at the City Hall yesterday and was sworn to tell the truth and nothand was sworn to tell the truth and nothing but the truth to the grand jury and then went up stairs, but the inquisitorial body not being ready for him, let him lay over until to-day and then listened to his marvelous story. Prior to his being invited into the room, Mr.W. D. Burbridge was sworn and examined. At the close of this witness' testimony the rest of the day was given up to Mr. Gibson, who lost no time in pointing out what the "special attorney" on his own hook had discovered in the shape of frauds in the expediting of Star-routes. Mr. N. Fisher, a Mrs. Gregg, and J. W. Spellman followed Gibson before the grand jury.

The Bevil Prompted Her.

Mary Bracket was charged in the Police Court this morning with committing a deadly assault upon Sophie Brown. Both damsels are colored, and are members of Brother Brooks' Fifth Baptist Church. Sophie stated to the Court that Mary, on Tuesday night last, made a most unprovoked assault upon her with a large rock. The defendant was then placed upon the stand, and said: "Deed, Judge, dat woman has jist made my life a torment. She causes me of taking her husband from her, when God knows I never hardly looks at de man. Sometimes he make eyes at me The Devil Prompted Her. cuses me of taking her husband from her, when God knows I never hardly looks at de man. Sometimes he make eyes at me in church; but Lord knows I never pays any 'tention to him.' Continuing, injured Mary said: "I was coming from Brother Brooks' church, last Tuesday night, when I look 'round and seed dat woman following me. I thought she was going to hit me, an' I picked up a stone, an' somebody whispered in my car an' told me to knock her in de head. Another Divorce Suit.

Elizabeth Lee to-day filed a bill for divorce from her husband, William H. Lee, and alimony peadente lite and counsel fees.

The parties were married in this District October 16, 1865, and lived together until August 11, 1881. At that date she left here and him to visit some friends in Ohio and has not seen him since. She charges that almost ever since their marriage the defendant has been in the habit of adultorous intercourse with other women. almost ever since their marriage the defendant has been in the habit is of adultorous intercourse with other women, and for the past three years has committed adultery with Mary Rucker, rented a room for her at No. 618 North Capitol street, and she has a child by him now about 2 years old. In the month of July, 1881, she listarted to get a divorce from him, but upon his promises of reformation she returned home, and was in a duced to live with him again. She returned from Ohio a few days since and found that during her absence he had been living in adultery with Mary Rucker.

Mr. Fall, the counsel for Mr. Lee, says the answer will be filed very shortly; but they will deny all the allegations set out above.

Mr. Bartholomei probably asked the State Department to interfere, for Gov. Littlefield received a telegram from Acting Secretary Hitt, pointing out that the Revised Statutes prohibit the serving of processes upon ministers. Subsequently, on October 31, Secretary Blaine wrote an eightpage letter to Gov. Littlefield, in which he said that the State Department had been officially informed that the sheriff had served a process on Bartholomei; that while no formal complaint had been made, "the communication," says Mr. Blaine, "was doubtless intended to bring to the notice of the Government the invasion of school at Fa. m. and slip. m. The seventeenth regular meeting of the Biological Society was held in the archive room of the National Museum last evening—thirty-four members prosent, Prof. Gill in the chair. Dr. M. G. Ellzey and Mr. Albert Koebell were elected to membership. Mr. Richard Rathbun presented a paper on the "Recent Explorations of the United States Fish Commission." Messrs. Gill, Dall, Goode and Schaeffer participated in the discussion of this paper. It was stated that the Fish Commission had within ten years added at least 1,500 species of animals on the coast of New England, while prior to its explorations only 800 were known, and that about 1,800 hauls of dredge and trawl had been made.

Mrs. Garfield's Agents. Mrs. Garfield has placed the literary es-tate of the late President in the hands of tate of the late President in the hands of Col. A. F. Rockwell, charged under her directions with its care, preservation and disposition. Joseph Rudolph, the administrator, has appointed Gen. D. G. Swaim his attorney and financial agent. Mrs. Garfield is overwhelmed with letters begging for money from all parts of the country, and from people of all conditions and classes. It is impossible for her to even ever to reply to them, as she receives from thirty to sixty a day, and if she acceded to half their requests she would soon be impoverished. The Organization of the Hon

The Organization of the House.

There are, according to the official roll of the House, as made up by the Clerk, 146 straight Republicans, or 1 short of a majority over all. They are as follows: California, 2; Colorado, 1; Connecticut, 3; Illinois, 13; Indiana, 8; Iowa, 9; Kansas, 3; Kentucky, 1; Louisiana, 1; Maine, 3; Maryland, I; Massachusetts, 10; Michigan, 9; Minnesota, 3; Missouri, 1; Nebraska, 1; New Hampsbire, I; New Jersey, 4; New York, 19; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 15; Oregon, 1; Pennsylvania, 18; Rhode Island; 2; Teanessee, 3; Vermout, 3; Virginia, 2' Wisconsin, 6; total, 146; There are 136 Democrats, 8 Greenbackers, 12 Readjusters and 1 Independent Republican (Smith, of Brooklyn). It is pretty certain that five of the Greenbackers, the two Readjusters and Smith will act with the Republicans on all matters except, perhaps, questions affecting finance. This will for all practical purposes give the Republicans a working majority of fifteen, which completely explodes the idea that has existed in the minds of some that there was to be a coalition between the Democrats and Greenbackers for the purpose of organizing the House. Especially is this idea exploded since Congressman Hewitt, of New York, has said he would not enter into such a bargain. Of these 146 straight Republicans, Mr. Hiscock's friends claim for him at least fifty-seven votes on the first ballot for Speaker. This is seventeen votes short, seventy-four being necessary to secure the caucus nomination. Mr. Hiscock may find it much harder to secure the seventeen than he imagines. Mr. Kasson's friends claim for him at least fifty-seven votes, while Mr. Keifer, of Ohio, says that if he does not develop more strength on the first ballot than all other competitors except Mr. Hiscock he will withdraw from the contest. There are some seven or eight other candidates claiming that each of them is the coming man, but until all the members arrive the safer plan would be to defer all predictions.
